Minister of Cambodia's Visit to Informatics' Campus

22 December 2006 – On 8 Dec 2006, Informatics hosted the visit by Cambodian Minister, Dr. Chea Chamroeun. Dr. Chea Chamroeun is the Rector and Founder of Chamroeun University of Poly-Technology (CUP), the first and largest private university in Cambodia. Prior to this, he started the Khmer Youth Development Organisation, the largest Professional Training Institute in Cambodia for poor people and youth. He is also the Advisor to the Royal Government of Cambodia, Chairman of Cambodian Coordination Committee and President of Cambodian Institute for Development and Human Rights.

The visit was arranged for his honourable and delegates to know more about Informatics Education and to explore possible business opportunities. Upon arrival our distinguished guests were taken on a campus tour by our Singapore Domestic Operations (SDO) team. They were then greeted by Mr Edwin Lim, Executive Director of Informatics International Division and Mr Breyvan Tan, Managing Director of SDO for a presentation on Informatics Education. The visit then ended with dinner with discussions over possible collaborations.
