Mr. Paul Dumaguin, Director for Corporate Learning, Informatics Philippines, receives the Outstanding Computer School award from the Asia-Pacific Excellence Awards. With Mr Dumaguin are the presentors headed by Mr. Jonathan Navea, Project Chairman .

Informatics Philippines was elevated to the Hall of Fame for winning the International Master Franchise of the Year Award (Service Category) for two consecutive years (2001-2002), by the Department of Trade and Industry and by the Philippine Franchise Association. It was also elevated to the Hall of Fame for having been awarded, Most Outstanding Computer School by the National Consumers Council for three years (2001-2002 and 2004). The National Consumers Quality Awards (NCQA) also named Informatics as the Top Computer Learning Center in 2003 and recently, Informatics was awarded by the Parangal ng Bayan Foundation with the National Consumers Excellence Award for Outstanding IT School in view of its significant contribution to the well-being of the Filipino Consumers. These accolades attest to Informatics' commitment to offer globally-recognized and premium quality IT training and education to Filipinos.

Globally, Informatics was named among the world's 100 Best Managed Small Companies outside the USA by Forbes Magazine in 1994. A year later, Asiamoney voted Informatics as one of the Best Managed Small Companies in Singapore. In 1996, it was recognized by Singapore's International Trade Development Board for its significant contribution in exporting Singapore's brainpower to the region. In 1997, Singapore's Economic Development Board (EDB), National Productivity and Standards Board (NPSB), and Singapore International Franchise Association (SIFA) awarded Informatics Franchiser of the Year for its successful franchise programs. And as proof of Informatics' commitment to quality, it has been awarded the ISO 9001 certification.

Today, Informatics has the widest range of IT programs and curricula recognised worldwide by institutions in the US, UK, Singapore, Australia, Canada and New Zealand. Informatics constantly emphasises research and development to maintain its leading edge.

To date, Informatics Philippines remains as the undisputed leader in IT training for children and the youth, professionals and leaders. It is also the most preferred IT trainer and IT systems integrator of private corporations.
