Informatics Corporate Membership offers value-packed services to corporations for training and upgrading

Informatics launches new Corporate Membership scheme which offers complete training services and facilities to companies

Singapore, 3 February 2005 – Informatics, a leading provider of quality lifelong learning services, has announced the launch of a new Corporate Membership scheme, offering value-packed services to corporations in training and skills upgrading, including facilities, at its new Informatics Campus site in Jurong East.

The Informatics Corporate Membership provides complete training services and facilities to corporations. Informatics Corporate Membership offers member corporations (and their employees) access to Informatics' training and recreational facilities.

“The Corporate Membership package is targeted at corporations who believe in continuous training, upgrading of skills and acquiring knowledge for their employees. This is in line with our commitment to providing quality lifelong learning services to the community,” said Dr Michael Teng, Chief Executive Officer of Informatics.

Members have its benefits and privileges, such as discounts on academic and corporate training programmes offered by Informatics Group and customised programmes based on the special requirements of each corporate member. Corporate members will enjoy preferential rates for the use of the campus facilities like lectures theatres, classrooms, sports facilities and training equipment. In addition, an online Informatics Global Employment Facility that extends across Informatics global network spanning more than 50 countries, will be provided at no charge for members. Corporate members can post their list of job openings on the Global Employment Facility for Singapore or overseas. They can also search for potential candidates around the world through this online portal facility.

There is no joining fee for the Corporate Membership. To sign up, please download and complete the registration form at www.informaticsgroup.com/corpmember or call the hotline at (65) 6850 8550. More details information on the programmes and facilities can also be found on the Corporate Membership website.
